

Lilly Pilly Indigenous Landscapes Pty Ltd Company Profile

Lilly Pilly Indigenous Landscapes has been operating for 20 years as a bush regeneration and native landscaping company, predominantly within the Sydney Basin. Lilly Pilly is committed to delivering the highest level of quality and environmentally sound services. The company has carried out both small and large scale bush regeneration contracts for local, state and federal government agencies and their affiliates. Lilly Pilly has experience working within a range of vegetation communities such as coastal heath, wetlands, tall open forest, woodland, closed forest and mangrove. Lilly Pilly Indigenous Landscapes has extensive experience in eco friendly gardens, ranging from native drought resistant gardens to self sufficient permaculture solutions.

Profile

At present Lilly Pilly is focused primarily on holistic restoration of urban bushland an eco friendly native landscapes. The company and staff are professional bush regenerators and horticulturalists and are at the forefront of restoration, conservation, revegetation, design and regeneration across the wider landscape. Lilly Pilly promotes a strong environmental ethic to all work practices including bush regeneration principles and methodologies.

Lilly Pilly staff, who are uniformed at times, present a high public profile are continually briefed an updated during all contract works programs and therefore represent the company and have an understanding of all management issues such as site requirements OH&S and public safety.

Lilly Pilly Indigenous Landscapes offer a wide range of environmentally sustainable services including:

- Bush regeneration using site specific techniques
- Site assessment
- Risk assessment
- Erosion control
- Urban impact analysis
- Fauna habitat evaluation
- Compilation writing and report presentation
- Coordination and supervision of Bushcare volunteers
- Execution of flora surveys including soil analysis
- Identification of vegetation communities
- Recommendations regarding impact amelioration and management options
- Seed collection and plant propagation
- Walkway construction
- Retaining wall and stair construction
- Gas "flamer" weed eradication

Lilly Pilly has an extensive and impressive work resume and has coordinated and overseen numerous bush regeneration/revegetation works for Waverley Council, Willoughby Council, Kur-ring-gai Council and Pittwater Council. The company has implemented projects for National Parks and Wildlife Services as well as the Sydney Harbour Federation Trust.

Lilly Pilly Indigenous Landscapes strives for excellence in delivering a holistic approach to bush regeneration and landscape solutions the company is committed to customer satisfaction and environmental integrity.